Welcome

Welcome to 'Lagniappe', our quarterly newsletter where you can catch up on all things festival. This publication allows you to keep yourself up to date on all that the Commission has achieved and gives you a glimpse into what's next on Tobago's cultural calendar.

This issue has the wrap ups for the Tobago Blue Food Festival and Tobago Carnival 2025 and what's coming for 2026.

We hope you enjoy reading and we look forward to providing you with more engaging and cultural content in the future.

HAPPY READING!

Sincerely,
Tobago Festivals Commission Limited

CEO's Address

Mr. Kern Cowan

As we begin a new period at Tobago Festivals Commission Limited, it feels important to pause and reflect on just how productive and rewarding the last few months have been. The final quarter of 2025 and the opening months of the 2025/2026 fiscal year were filled with activity, energy, and growth, led by two major highlights on our calendar, Tobago Blue Food Festival and Tobago Carnival.

Both events welcomed thousands of visitors to the island and brought life and excitement to our communities. We also introduced new and distinctive merchandise that allowed patrons to connect with the brand beyond the event itself. One of our most exciting steps forward was the Tobago Carnival AI experience, which gave users a new and interactive way to engage with the festival and with Tobago. These initiatives reflect our continued effort to blend tradition with innovation.

Looking ahead, 2026 is shaping up to be an exciting year for culture and festivals in Tobago. Our schedule includes National Carnival, the Tobago Heritage Festival, Tobago Blue Food Festival, and Tobago Carnival, which will mark its fifth year. National Carnival will take place in January and February, with events across Scarborough, Roxborough, and Crown Point, creating opportunities for participation and enjoyment across the island.

I would like to extend sincere thanks to all our sponsors and partners who supported us over the past quarter. Your partnership plays a critical role in what we are able to achieve. We value long term relationships and remain open to building new ones as we continue to grow and evolve. Strong partnerships allow us to do more, reach further, and deliver better experiences.

At TFCL, we remain committed to continued investment in Tobago's orange economy. Our festivals are not only celebrations of culture but drivers of opportunity, creativity, and economic activity, and this remains central to our work.

In this new year, we will also be sharing more of what happens behind the scenes at TFCL. From planning to execution, we want to give you a closer look at the people and processes that help bring these events to life.

Finally, I want to thank all our stakeholders for their continued support. Our staff, board members, the Tobago House of Assembly, suppliers, partners, and the wider community all play an important role in the work we do. TFCL's success is a shared one, and we look forward to continuing this journey together.

Thank you for being part of the TFCL story.

Regards,

Kern Cowan

WELCOME TO THE TOBAGO BLUE FOOD FESTIVAL

Tobago Blue Food Festival

The Tobago Blue Food Festival 2025 came alive on Sunday, October 19, 2025 at the Bloody Bay Recreational Grounds. The staple event maintained its appeal with a record number of patrons in attendance despite the heavy rainfall. The event featured over 40 food vendors showcasing innovative dasheen based dishes and drinks. These included punches, delicacies such as kurma, and cakes, ice-cream, wines, roti among other offerings. Also featured were several craft vendors offering handmade goods and cultural pieces.

Newly installed, permanent vending structures enhanced the overall festival experience, while family-friendly attractions, interactive games, and a lively petting zoo added to the day's appeal. Patrons also enjoyed performances from a lineup of local artistes such as Lord Nelson, Farmer Nappy, Verrse and Koquice Davidson, creating an energetic and festive atmosphere. The event reinforced the Blue Food Festival as a signature celebration of Tobago's food culture and ingenuity.

Locally crafted items from dasheen such as cake, fudge and bread.

Tobago Carnival 2025 successfully wrapped up the Commission's year of festivals, delivering a dynamic celebration of culture, creativity, and community. Branded under a new theme 'Mud, Mas & Music', the season unfolded through a full slate of signature events, including the Junior Calypso Monarch Competition, Monarchs of Mas, Soca Titans, Calypso Monarch, and a high-energy Carnival weekend on the road.

The competitive season officially began on October 2, 2025, with the Tobago Junior Calypso Monarch Competition at Shaw Park Complex, where Koquice Davidson of Signal Hill Secondary School captured the title with her powerful performance of "Appreciate Our Icons." Her victory set the tone for a season grounded in cultural pride and artistic excellence, paving the way for the creative and musical showcases that followed.

Creative storytelling took centre stage on October 17, 2025, during Monarchs of Mas at Carnival City, Scarborough, where Tobago's designers and performers brought striking portrayals to life. Ayanna Nedd (Seraphina) claimed first place, followed by Dannel Salvery in second and Nicole Moses-Beckles in third.

Soca lovers were treated to a great battle on October 22, 2025, when Verre (with his song titled 'Paradise') defended his crown at the Tobago Soca Titans Competition, defeating nine other finalists to secure the title of Tobago Carnival Soca Titan for a second consecutive year.

The celebrations continued on October 23, 2025, as Nicole Thomas-Clarke (with her song titled 'Sacrifice') was crowned the TUCO Tobago Carnival Calypso Monarch 2025 following a fiercely contested final at Carnival City.

Carnival weekend brought the season to a close with several bands filling the streets during Dutty J'ouvert, Night Mas, Traditional Mas and the Parade of the Bands. Following the parades, persons were invited to vote for the bmobile Band of the Road People's Choice. In the winner's row were Vogue Promotions Mas & Events taking Contemporary Mas, K'Tique Mas claiming Traditional Mas, and Sisters in Culture earning Best Cultural Presentation.

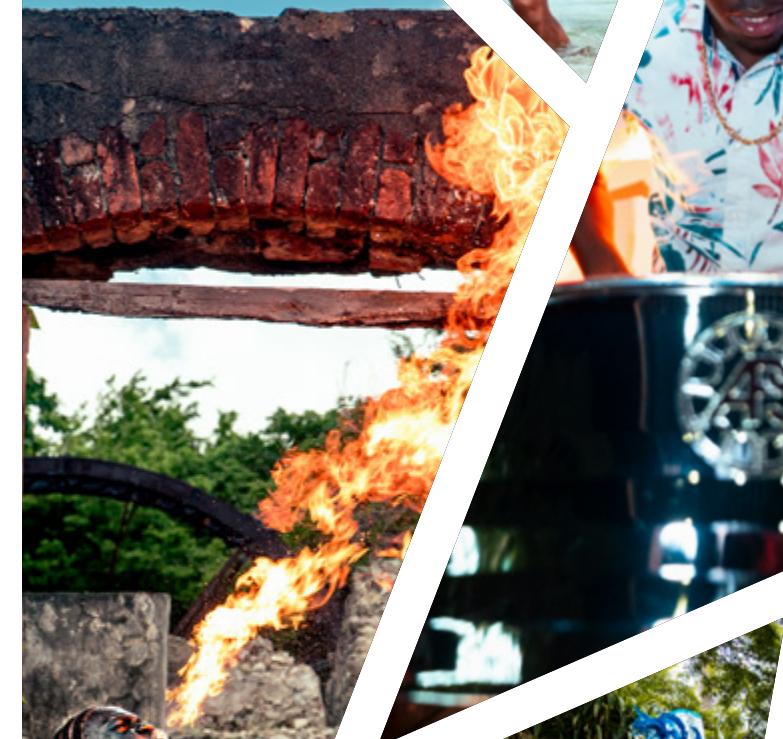

Together, these events showcased Tobago Carnival 2025 as a dynamic journey from encouraging young talent to celebrating artistry and amongst euphoric road experiences all rooted in Tobago's unique cultural identity. The fourth installation was definitely a success.

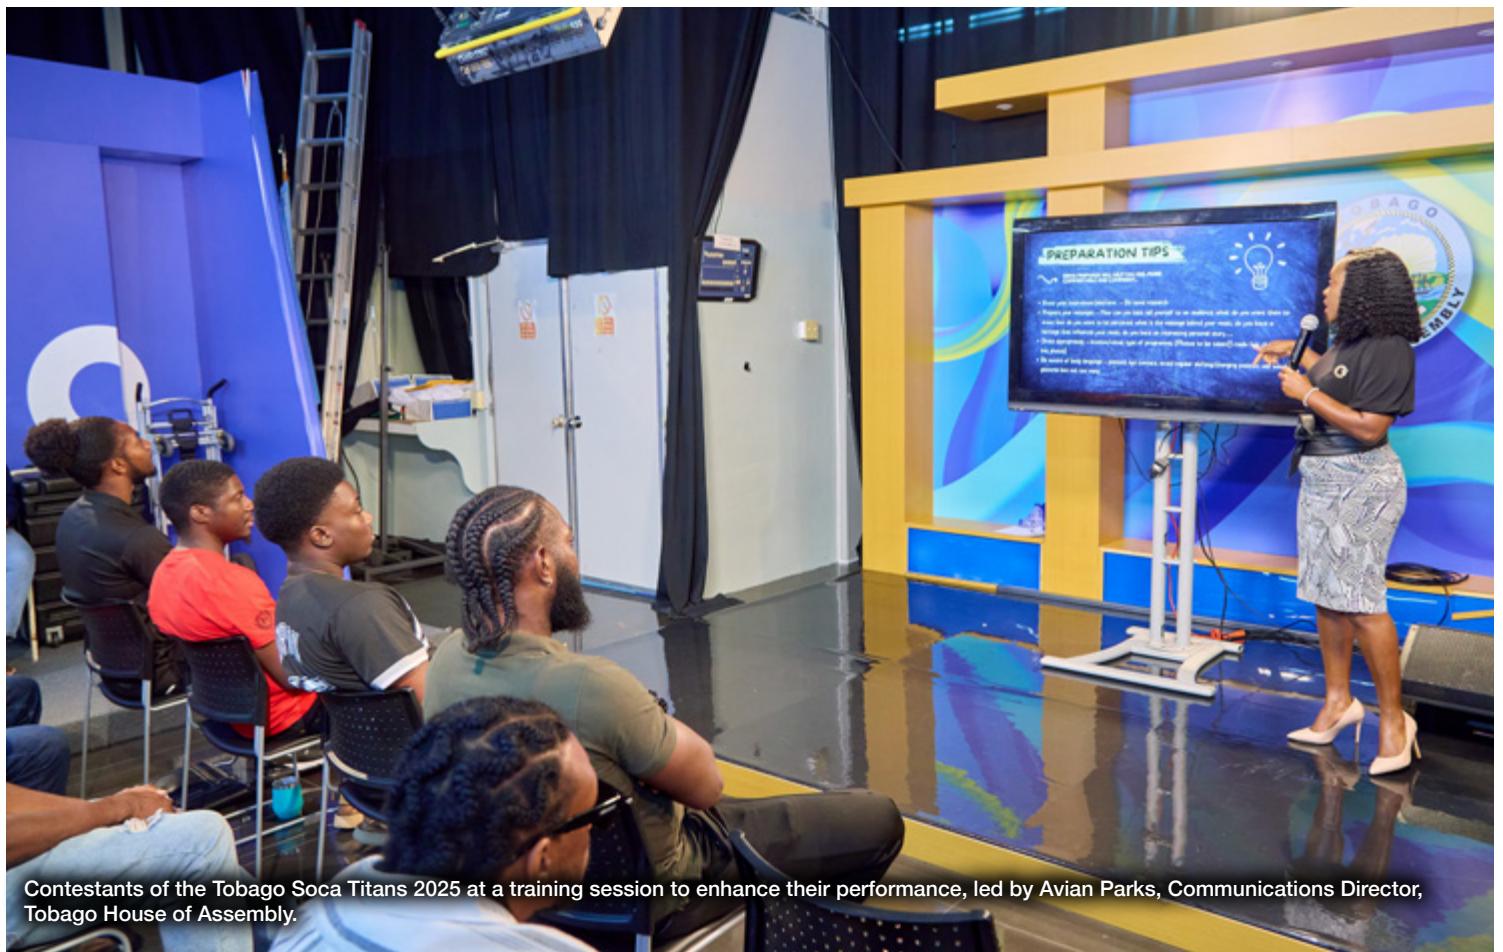

2026 will be a milestone year, celebrating the 5th year of the Festival from October 30 to November 1. The Tobago House of Assembly, Division of Tourism, Culture, Antiquities and Transportation and Tobago Festivals Commission Limited thank our sponsors and partners namely Tobago Tourism Agency Limited, Tobago Information Technology Limited, Shaw Park Complex, Information Division, Tobago Updates, TTT, bmobile, AMPLIA Communications, CARIB, Bermudez, Holiday Snacks, GTC and Angostura White Oak.

Calder Hall Carnival

Calder Hall Carnival continues to stand as one of Tobago's most authentic community-driven Carnival experiences, rooted in tradition, togetherness, and cultural pride. What began as a small initiative by a group of friends passionate about preserving traditional mas has grown into a highly anticipated village celebration that brings the streets of Calder Hall alive each Carnival Tuesday.

Organised by the Pioneers of Calder Hall (POCH), the event centres on a traditional carnival parade that celebrates mas characters, steelpan, dance, and J'ouvert. Over the years, Calder Hall Carnival has become known for its emphasis on cultural education, community participation, and respect for Carnival heritage, welcoming revelers from all backgrounds to experience Carnival in an organic form.

A signature element of the celebration is the Calder Hall Mud Mas experience. With decades of history behind it, the mud camps and bands offer a unique, immersive Carnival tradition built on community. Calder Hall Carnival maintains its place as a vital part of Tobago's Carnival landscape, preserving tradition while strengthening community bonds year after year.

Sun, Vibes and Good Sense

Your Guide to Festival Life in Tobago

By Cayla Culture, festival lover and seasoned event goer

If you have ever caught yourself wondering what to wear, what to bring, or what to expect before heading out to a festival in Tobago, then you are exactly where you need to be. Welcome to the blog series, 'Make It AND Make Sense', where we talk all things events, from the fun moments to the practical details that can make or break your experience.

I am not an event planner or an official anything. I am just someone who loves a good festival, has attended more than a few, and has learned along the way that preparation matters just as much as vibes. This series is about sharing those little tips that help you enjoy the experience fully, comfortably, and responsibly.

With National Carnival around the corner, this felt like the perfect place to start.

National Carnival takes place during January and February and brings activity across Scarborough, Roxborough, and Crown Point. It is colourful, energetic, and very much outdoors, which means one thing you cannot ignore, the sun. Tobago sun is not for play, so when planning your outfit, think light, breathable, and comfortable. Cotton shirts, loose dresses, shorts, and comfortable footwear are your best friends. Leave the heavy fabrics and tight shoes for another day.

What should you walk with? A small umbrella is always a smart idea, whether it is for shade or a quick shower. Sunscreen is a must, especially if you plan to be out for hours. Bring water and use it. A small crossbody bag or backpack keeps your hands free and your essentials close. And yes, bring your camera or make sure your phone is charged, because there will be moments worth capturing. In terms of what to expect, National Carnival offers a mix of activities that showcase creativity, friendly competition, and community spirit. One of the highlights on the calendar is the Inter-department Carnival Competition on February 5, where divisions come together in a fun and festive way. We're heading back to the Parade Grounds at Dwight Yorke Stadium for this so you know that means walk with your crew, and your cooler. Beyond that, there will be activities spread across Crown Point, Scarborough, and Roxborough, each location bringing its own flavour and energy to the season.

My biggest advice for National Carnival, and really for any festival, is to pace yourself. Arrive early, know where you are going, take breaks when you need to, and most importantly, be respectful of the space, the people, and the culture being celebrated.

This is just the beginning. In upcoming posts, I will be sharing more festival tips, what to expect at different events, how to move smart in crowds, and how to enjoy Tobago's festivals while still looking out for yourself and others.

So grab your shades, plan your outfit, and get ready for the season. I will be right here, walking with you. Also, the Commission's social media pages are updated quite frequently, so make sure to stay tuned to your platform of choice for ALL THINGS FESTIVAL.

See you in the crowd 😎
